FAIR BUYS DUNOIS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 4.—The horses that T. H. Ryan and Sloan & Hurst have been racing over the local tracks were nearly all sold at auction today and brought very fair prices. Dunois was withdrawn before the sale, having been disposed of privately to George Miller (for C. L. Fair), for $5,000. Don't Skip Me was not sold. The others brought the following prices: First Call, 4, to James Coffey, $1,500. Dare II, 5, to T. G. Ferguson, $1,050. Goal Runner, 3, to W. L. Scott, $1,000. Montallade, 6, to Al Smith, $900. Prince Blazes, 4, to Duke & Wishard, $850. The Wooer, 3, to Frank Ireland, $400. Al, 5, to J. Agnew, $225.

YORKVILLE BELLE'S SALE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 4.—General W. H. Jackson, of the Belle Meade Stud, has sold to William Easton, presumably for W. C. Whitney,

Yorkville Belle, with a foal by her side by Tithonus, by St. Simon. The price is said to be $10,000. This famous racemare became the property of Belle Meade Stud when Gen. Jackson purchased Mr. Croker's interest therein several years since.

Freak, the three-year-old half sister to Forget and Frogmore, will be sent to Memphis where she will be given a special preparation for the rich Tennessee Oaks by Pat. Tomlinson.

General Jackson has also sold twelve of his yearling fillies, most of them by Requois, to Bruce Seaton, of England. This leaves only colts for the Belle Meade spring sale, which will take place in New York.

T. R. Scott has sold to John Troxler, of this city, the four-year-old chestnut filly Lady of the West, by Chorister—Daphne. Price $1,500. H. N. McTyeire, of Nashville, has purchased of the estate of W. M. Edwards, Union City, Tenn., the stallion Longfish, by Longfellow—Kate Fisher.

JOCKEY CLUB OFFICIALS.

The Stewards of the Jockey Club met in New York Friday and appointed the following officials for the present year:

Judges—R. W. Simmons and Clarence McDowell.

Starter—C. J. Fitzgerald.

Clerk of the Scales—H. G. Crickmore.

Handicapper and Forfeit Clerk—W. S. Vosburg.

Starting Judge—W. H. Barrett.

Paddock and Patrol Judge—J. L. Hall.

The appointment of the official steward to represent the Jockey Club at licensed courses was deferred until a subsequent meeting.

Permission was granted to Perry Belmont to change the name of the three-year-old colt Froh-sinn, by Spendthrift—Llandrino, to Lackland and to Marcus Daly to change the name of the two-year-old colt by Bathampton—Alice Him-yar from Aberlow to Hamptonian.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the stewards of the Jockey Club desire to advise the various associations racing under their rules that the entries of horses by married men shall not be received so long as their wives remain in the forfeit list."

George B. Patterson's application that the decision under which the entries of the horse Burlesque are refused on all Jockey Club courses be rescinded is denied.

DEATH OF TREMONT.

A dispatch from Nashville conveys the information that the stallion Tremont broke his stifle Thursday night while in his paddock at Belle Meade, and in consequence was destroyed. Tremont was a black, by Virgil—Ann Fief, by Lexington. He only raced as a two-year-old. Then he was an invincible racehorse. That was in 1886. He started in thirteen races and won them all. Over the various tracks around New York he won the Sequence Stakes and Juvenile Stakes at Jerome Park, Foam Stakes, Surf Stakes, Zephyr Stakes, Paddock Stakes, Spring Stakes, June Stakes, Great Post Stakes and Good Bye Stakes at Coney Island, and the Atlantic Stakes, Tyro Stakes and Junior Champion Stakes at Monmouth Park. He was a wonder on any kind of track and made such a horse as Kingston look common. Ringbone stopped his career and he was sold to David Swigert for $25,000. When Swigert's breeding establishment was sold out General W. H. Jackson bought Tremont for $17,500. At the stud he was not the success he was as a racehorse.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Of the 208 entries received to the Lawrence Realization for 1900, only thirty-six have declared, leaving 172 still eligible. The Futurity of 1899 received 755 nominations, of which 171 are void, and 307 have declared, which leaves 277 still eligible. The entries in full to both of these events are published in The Racing Calendar of March 2.

The Spirit of the Times declares that it has it from the best of authority that there will positively be no running meeting at Washington Park this year unless the bill now before the Illinois legislature is passed. The prospects, we are glad to state, are most favorable for the passage of the bill.

Jockey Fred Tatal has signed to ride the coming season for Eastin & Larabie, owners of Ben Holladay.
